THERESASORTOFSINKINGFEELINGTHAT ACCOMPANIESEVERYISSUEOFECCNOGTUPEDUPAHEADOF

EGGNOG #30 is a journal (zine in the vernacular) of postal Diplomacy, edited by Konrad H. Baumeister, 11416 Parkview Lane, Hales Corners, WI. 53130 U.S.A. It appears every three weeks like clockwork, except when I'm not here, like this time. This issue and #31 is supervised by Konrad but published by Uli Baumeister, same address, phone Number (414) 425-4631 (between 7 and 9 pm). EGGNOG sells at the rate of 10 issues for $3.50, with trades accepted. Game fee for regular game is $2 per head. EGGNOG is copyrighted by Konrad Baumeister. This is EGGNOG Enterprises Production #48, naturally.

THESEINTODUCTIONS WILL HAVE TO THINK

THE OVERSTUFFED RECLINER

(THE EDITOR' COLUMN)

Just like Newsweek did a few short months ago, EGGNOG will change its format somewhat, hopefully for the better. In any case, even the format of The Overstuffed Recliner will be different. That's why we have this short introduction.. Instead of numbering points of value in this column, we'll simply capitalize them and get on with it. We'll soon see how successful we are with this idea.

(Cont'd Next Column)

THE HEADING

"Quadrophenia" is the name of an album by British Mod Rockers The Who, led by the illustrious Pete Townshend of London. The album was recorded in 1973, and will be made into a movie which will appear sometime this summer, apparently simultaneously with another movie by The Who, "The Kids Are Alright." Despite the loss of drummer Keith Moon, The Who will have a four day show at Madison Square Garden this Summer, to promote the movies, but will not make a tour of the States. Quadrophenia itself is a shabby album, but "The Kids Are Alright" is a great double-live album, Buy it!!!

THE FORMAT OF THIS ISSUE

As is obvious to most every blind person, I've decided to convert EGGNOT's format to one using two column/page. This should make everything easier to organize, etc, and isn't all that hard to type, either. I'd like to hear from the readership what they think of this, since it's for them that I'm doing it! The games will be done using the same format, unless brother Uli decided to have them done otherwise (I don't know, I'm in Europe as you read this.....)

The Overstuffed Recliner Cont'd:

PRINTING OF LAST ISSUE

...Or lack thereof, that is! A few people have written in to say that the printing of EGGNOG #29 was less than optimum. (John Michalski said that his copy "arrived with what appeared to be a stab wound from an axle-greased tire iron.") What happened was the following: My ditto was giving me the unexpected troubles it is (in)famous for. I ran off a high enough number of sheets to accomodate for all of the subbers/traders/etc, minus about 4. The rest of the bad copies I kept for myself, of course. Then, as I walked down to the Post Office to mail the damned things, it began to pour! By the time I reached the box, I could see that a bit of the fluid was already bleeding through the sheets. To hell with saving gas in the future, my friends! From now on I drive down again! In any case, it appears that everybody could read their game reports, which is the important part. This issue and the one after it are the responsibilities of my brother Uli, of course, so don't blame me!

LAST MENTION OF GERMAN TRIP HEREIN

As you read this, I will be in Germany, luxuriating in my European Kanadu. All problems and everything will be/is being handled by my brother Uli, who shares the same address. All moves for all games should go to him, all negotiations for all of my games (except for the exception noted below) should go to him, and all phone calls for whatever strikes, you should go to him. Naturally all contributions should likewise go to him. He is responsible for just about everything in here, except that I, Konrad, will have typed up the feature articles for the next two issues already. Should you wish to write to me in Germany, and I hope some of you will, my address there will be:

Konrad Baumeister c/o Mr. J. Solzbacher
Delllenweg 28
534 Bad Honnef
WEST GERMANY (B.R.D.)

Hopefully everything will be in some semblance of order when I return, cuz I'll have plenty of other stuff to do (Cont'd Next Column) at that time. Please don't try to make it too rough on little Uli, as he'll try his best, I'm sure. EGGNOG may be a little bit late, so I'll let him make his own deadlines for the most part.

I will return late at night on August 1, so don't mail anything to my German address that might arrive after July 29. (Average Air Mail transit time is about a week.) And now I promise that I won't say another word about it. Except to say to Smacko that it he'd been born into a well-to-do family, he could afford the same.

GAME OPENINGS

EGGNOG had Game Openings at the rate of a $2 Game Fee and maintenance of a sub at 10/$3.50 in the following games:

- a) Regular Diplomacy games (yes, there are still some open places, and send preference list).
  - *b) Atlantica III, which is hopefully filled by the time this announcement reaches you. One or two places left in this excellent variant idea by Fred Davis.
- *Already filled -- See P. 5.

STANDBY LIST

The following people are kind enough to play standby positions in this 'zine: Eric Verheiden, Larry Boudon, Ray Cifani, Eugene Paulson, Gerard Van Alkemade, Vincent Lieu, Russ Tulp, Phil Cooper, David Joy, Phil Harding, Mitch Bailes, David Hooton, Robert Cheek, Peggy Gemigani, Bob Kluge, Jan Luckenbill. Anybody wishing to get on or off of the standby list should contact me about it.

NEW 'ZINE OUT

Scotto Marley, the 'zine Archivist appointed by Walt Buchanan, has started a 'zine called Utopia, Ltd. Scott's address is 12682 Swidler Place, Santa Ana, CA 92705. His will be the only news 'zine around, though not as he claims the first ever. Contact him for details if interested. I wish Scott the best of luck!

EGGNOG CIRCULATION DISTRIBUTION

In Lee Kendter's Why Me? #16, Lee gave, just for shits and grins, some information on how many copies of his 'zine go to any certain state. So, just for shits and grins, I decided to do the same. Key: State's abbreviation (# of people, percentage of total circulation). Hope you'll find it interesting.

CA (10, 11%), PA (6, 7%), CANADA (6, 7%), NY (5, 5.5%), NJ (5, 5.5%), OH (5, 5.5%), MD (4, 5%), TX (3, 3%), OK (3, 3%), WI (3, 3%), WEST GERMANY (3, 3%), UNITED KINGDOM (3, 3%), MO (2, 2%), NH (2, 2%), FL (2, 2%), VA (2, 2%), IA (2, 2%), OR (2, 2%), MI (2, 2%), WA (2, 2%), ME (1, 1%), VT (1, 1%), CO (1, 1%), IRELAND (1, 1%), SWITZERLAND (1, 1%), HOLLAND (1, 1%), COLOMBIA (1, 1%).

Wierd statistics, For instance I don't have 1 Illinois subber in the bunch!, On the other hand I have a lot of Europeans here. Also, I tended to round down the percentage figures, which accounts for the fact that the above adds up to only 93.5%! My orphan 'zine SLABR reaches a huge number of Illinois players, as well as, if combined with EGGNOG, all of the 50 states except for GA and AL. Oh well.

TRIVIA TIME!

We had a great turnout this time! This issue also marks the first time that Fred Davis has been Defeated. What will the world come to? The winner this time was none other than....Phil Harding. He was closely followed by Russ Tulp with 14 correct answers. Harding had 15 correct. Right behind him was EGGNOG critic Dave White with 7 answers. The rest of the contestants joined J. Michalski with 3 answers. NOW!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

TRIVIA QUIZ FOR THIS TIME

As with last month's, the prize for winning this month's trivia quiz is five free issues tacked on to your subscriptions! Run for your sources, folks, and send in your answers by the deadline for these things, July 19, 1979. Good luck to all.

1. Jerome (Dizzy) Dean pitched for the St. Louis Cardinals. Who was his brother?
2. Can you name the largest character in the comic strip "Alley Oop?"
3. What musical takes place in a town that appears every 100 years?
4. In the Prohibition years, how did "Texas" Guinan greet customers of her speak-easy?
5. Alaska was "Seward's Folly" - what was "Clinton's Folly?"
6. Through what town is Lady Godiva said to have ridden nude?
7. What were the early stage names of Cher and Sonny Bono?
8. The Whisky Rebellion occurred in 1794. Where?
9. The Marquis of Queensbury introduced the basic rule of boxing. What was his actual name?
10. In what movie was Fobbie Lee's rag doll "Benjamin" accidentally dropped off the Tallahatchee Bridge?
11. Who played Capt. Cylpeper, Chief of Santa Rosita police in the movie, "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World?"
12. What did Bobby Jones call his favorite putter?
13. In what fictional hospital did Dr. Kildare work in the 1940 movie "Dr. Kildare Goes Home?"
14. In a comic strip by Mort Walker, what leading character's eyes are never shown?
15. Where was Illinois first capital, back in 1818?
16. What city is known as the Gateway to the West?
17. Sidney Greenstreet made his film debut in what movie?
18. What was the world's first jet airliner (built in 1952)?

ANSWERS TO LAST MONTH'S QUIZ

Here are the answers to the quiz won by the person announced on Page 3.

1. "Leaping Lizards". 2. Ed Lubanski. 3. May 20-21, 1927.
4. Lincoln Highway, New York to Calif. 1913. 5. "Hannibal Brooks." 6. Don Larsen (Yankees, 1956). 7. Louis XIV's twin brother. 8. Capt. James Lawrence, USN. 9. Mae Clarke. 10. "Let's Dance."
11. Shamrock I-V. 12. Davidson. 13. The U.S. Purchase of Alaska from Russia in 1867 for $720000. 14. Col. (now U.S. Senator) John Glenn of Ohio. 15. Jonathan Livingston Seagull. 16. "Only You Can Prevent Forest Fires."
17. Pitched for Baltimore Orioles in 1890s. 18. Burt Lancaster. 19. Bonnie Parker while she and Clyde Barrows were fugitives. 20. 12 pints.
21. "When It's Sleepy Time Down South." 22. The bell in the clock tower of the House of Parliament in London. 23. Eddie Arcara. 24. Beulah and Beauregard. 25.. 132 Germans.

Thanks must go to John Michalski, who provided utterly hilarious answers, the best of which was to answer #17. His answer: "Pimped." What would we do without jokers like Dave Bunke and John?!

What a shame - - I lost all of my' witty sayings list and now I'll have to fill up this space with something other than that. But that's easy to do, isn't it?

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF POLITICIAN

Last issue a brief announcement appeared on page 10, which was mainly there to prepare you for this announcement, and to fill up half of the page, which was inexplicably blank. This issue, I'll give you all of the details on my new variant 'zine.

All variants currently palyed in EGGNOG will be transfered to POLITICIAN by the end of the summer. Only regular games will appear here, and only variant games will appear there.

The players of these variant games will find their EGGNOG sub halved, and transfered to POLITICIAN (to allow them to play in it). The traders playing in these games will find their trade transfered to POLITICIAN, likewise. The traders playing in both regualr and variant games, which means Lee Mendter only, will have to choose which 'zine to trade for, and which to subscribe to (I can't afford to send you both 'zines). The Atlantica game, when filled, will also be transfered to POLITICIAN, of course.

I would like to trade my variant 'zine for any other 'zine carrying variants of any kind. As soon as the postal strike in Ireland is over, new developments will take place in the variant hobby, and POLITICIAN will hopefully be a force in them. EGGNOG already trades with several variant carrying 'zines, which I will not break but I hope that the other will jump on board.

Subscriptions to POLITICIAN will cost the same as those for EGGNOG; 10 issues for $3.50. Gamefee for the open Youngstown and Atlantica games are $2 per head. Standby people needed, of course! The 'zine will be run on a monthly schedule, started sometime in August. It will be completely separate form EGGNOG in most every way.

Features will be Variant Numbers occasional editorials, variant reprints and prints, letters to the editor, strategy articles, etc. Sign up now! (if I haven't already signed you up, through virtue of being a player in a game....) Please be most explicit when writing to my borther, as he can be easily confused.

ATLANTICA III FILLES!

Here are the country assignments for the just-recently filled Atlantica III game which I've had open for a while. All players should have maps and rules by now. right? If not, there's still plenty of time to get them, since the next deadline isn't for a hell of a long time. I know for a fact that everyone but Phil and Russ have a set, and assumedly Fred will send them one now, if he hasn't already. (He might distribute them at DeipCon). Anyway, here are the assignments. Most were assigned by preference.

CANANDA:	Chip Charnley USMT, Box 60 Argentina, MFLD Canada AOE 1 NO
C.S.A.:	Fred C. Davis Jr. 1427 Clairidge Rd. Baltimore, MD 21207
ENGLAND:	Russ Tulp 433 Parkside Avenue Buffalo, N.Y. 14216
FRANCE:	Robert Cheek 10392 Ladera Senda Santa Ana, CA 92705
GERMANY:	Phil Harding R.R. #3 New Castle, IN 47362
ITALY:	Phil Cooper 80 E. Brandis Staten Island, NY 10308
US.A.:	Jan Luckenbill RD 1, Box 96 Kutztown, PA 19530

I think that we have a fair geographic distribution of countries here. Also, I tried to separate the people that have already met in the Swiss Diplomacy game playing in EGG - NOG. Successful? I hope so

The first part of the game is the hardest to run. Especially since I won't even be here for much of it, and I believe that Fred is going on a vacation of his own. So, the initial placement of the High Seas Fleets and the April 1870 moves will be due on AUGUST 25, 1972. That's a long deadline, but we'll need it. This game will probably go right into POLITICIAN from the start. Good luck!!

THE OVERSTUFFED RECLINER (Cont'd):

ENGLISH OPENING ARTICLE

Alas, for the Berchs and Whites among us, I must announce that the article on English play is not to be found in this issue. Or the one after that. You see, I've misplaced the damned thing (possibly thrown it out by mistake, in which case I will have to rewrite it) and couldn't find it in time to do the masters. When I get back from Germany I'll hunt around the house for it again, but whether or not I'll find it is another question. It is possible that I threw it out with the original article on Germany when I printed the latter. We'll see soon enough.

AFTER GERMANY, WHAT THEN?

After I come back from my six weeks spending spree in Germany, I'll stay at home for about a week or ten days. Then it's off to the East Coast to check out some colleges. So I'll be out at Princeton, U. of Pennsylvania, Johns Hopkins, Georgetown, etc. I'll be calling on some Dip-buddies on my way through town, probably. Indeed, I might be able to make it to the f-t-f Colonia game planned for Philly in August, if I'm lucky. I'm not sure, but I'd love to play it instead of GMing the damned thing for a change (I'll get warmed up by going to a Mini DipCon in Hamburg in June!)

DIPLOMACY WORLD OUT AT LAST

I'm glad that the issue came out in time for DipCon (although I can't take advantage of that, grrrrr....). On the surface, Jerry has done a fine job so far, but I'll dissect the whole EW idea when I'm back in the States. I have a feeling that I'll be sticking my neck out by doing so, but I can promise a highly controversial article in September!

ABSENCE OF DEMONSTRATION GAME MATERIAL

John Boyer, our analyst, had to resign his post. I have appointed Eric Verheiden to do the analysis' from now on. See next issue for more.

 preparation for the coming Elections, more Black Nations are being prepared to be free and self ruling. Actually, Geneva, the younger members of the Dutch Delegation were supposed to be an Carribean Cruese and were demanding their money back.

PORTUGAL-NETHERLANDS: You should get something back for your third attempt to sneek in my back door. We have to stop meeting like this, Pierre found out. Games up-France is on to us. Better attack now.

LUNDA: Portugese troop movements on the border of Angola have caused alarm in British South Africa. This unprovoked threat to the peace and security, of the British Empire wilk be dealt with severely! Spanish neutrality in a limited war between Britain and Portugal is expected.

LONDON: The Winter Debate over the extent of British involvement in India is reaching a crisis point. The Government's argument that the occupation of by Britain's traditional friend, China, removes any need for British intervention has been rejected and a "no confidence" vote has been called. Knowledgable ovservers predict the Government could fall before the Spring 1753 campaign.

EGGNOG: Does that mean that you'll NMR next turn? Your'e all heart.
